Week of March 23

Africa

- Pray for our partner FEBAC in South Sudan, as political instability has led to government attacks in some areas.
- Pray for lasting peace and protection.

Europe

- Pray for students in Kassel preparing for exams and job searches. May they rely on God's faithfulness and guidance.
- Pray for the student meditation group in Goettingen, which meets bi-weekly for silence and scripture reflection amid busy schoolwork.
- Pray that believers grow in their desire for God, practice communal spiritual formation, and balance "intimacy with God" and "service to Him", nurturing the importance of both "being" and "doing."

MENA

- Pray for Rabih as he continues to support church leaders across the MENA region during these challenging times, while being faithful stewards of the Lord's ministry and offering support and care to them.

Latin America and Caribbean

- Please pray for our partners as they complete the first quarter of the year. May God guide them, strengthen them, and grant them peace as they navigate the various challenges in their communities.

Asia

- Pray for Joseph and Lilian in Thailand, as they balance ministry, teaching, and their studies. May God strengthen them.
- Recently, the Thai government has cut off electricity, internet, and fuel to the Myanmar border area in an effort to crack down on fraudulent activities. However, this has also severely affected the local people and churches in the area.
- Please pray that God will grant the leaders of both countries the wisdom to address the problem while considering the needs of the people.

North America

- Pray for the SENT team from Gateway Baptist Church who will travel to Roxas City, Philippines and serve with CBM's partner KPM. (Mar 14-26)
